Go Comedy! Improv Theater is Holding Auditions

FERNDALE, MI – With its grand opening three months away, Go Comedy! is proud to announce auditions for their resident company. Auditions will be held Saturday, August 9 and Sunday, August 10 with callbacks Tuesday, August 12. “We are looking to cast six to nine talented performers,” said Producer, Pj Jacokes, “We’re hoping to get a mix of actors, improvisers and comedians, so that we can assemble a strong cast with varied backgrounds.”

The resident company will perform on weekends as contestants in The Super Happy Go Funtime Show! – an improvised game show. They will also work to create a sketch show for the holidays. “We want to be able to give our first cast as many opportunities to be on stage as we can,” said Artistic Director, Chris DiAngelo. “We have, what we believe, are some great ideas for shows, but we are also looking for people who can bring great ideas to the table.”

While the main focus of auditions will be to cast the resident company, Go Comedy! will also create two house troupes for shows on Wednesdays and Thursdays. In addition, they are looking for Stage Managers and Accompanists. “Those of us behind the scenes at an improv show are an integral part of an ensemble,” said Operations Manager/Technical Director, Tommy LeRoy. “We have to be on our toes to follow the action, because even we don’t know where it could end up and we have to be ready for anything.”

Those interested in auditioning should contact Pj Jacokes at (248) 327-0575 on August 4 and 5 from 9am – 5pm to register for an audition time. Although not required, some improv experience is recommended. Those interested in being Stage Managers or Accompanists, should e-mail Jacokes at pj@gocomedy.net.
